

“Education Welfare”

UN SDG

International Seminar

Nov 10, 2022

International Seminar on the occasion of UN/UNESCO World Science Day on “Sciences for Sustainable Development”

ICERT organized this seminar on Nov 10, 2022.

World Science Day for Peace and Development highlights the significant role of science in society and emerging scientific issues.

The seminar included three sessions on the following topics:

Session 1: Dr. Loganathan Veeramuthu, Research Assistant Professor, Institute of Organic and Polymer Materials, Research and Development Center of Smart Textile Technology, National Taipei University of Technology (NTUT), Taipei, Taiwan on “Sustainable Approaches for the Smart Applications”

Session 2: Ms Pratishtha Gupta, Educator, CBSE and NCERT Resource Person, Author, and an Environmentalist New Delhi on “Sustainable Development Goals and Sustainable Futures “

Session 3: Open discussion

The major objectives of the seminar were:

1. To brainstorm on role of science education in sustainable development.
2. Discussion on role of scientist toward society welfare.
3. Empowering youth, educators and researchers on scientific skills, attitudes and cognitive performance.
4. Promoting science learning.
5. Empowering and motivating the education fraternity with on interdisciplinary approaches.
6. Quality education and holistic development.

Participants/ Beneficiaries:

1558 participants from Bangladesh, India, Nigeria, Ghana, Malaysia, Sri Lanka, Pakistan, Philippines, Saudi Arabia, Oman, Cambodia, Algeria, Egypt, Romania, Moldova, Indonesia, Rwanda, Cameroon, US, Bhutan, Uzbekistan, Morocco, Mexico, United Arab Emirates, and Taiwan participated in the program. The program was free and open for all.

Link to watch the program: \(2\) ICERT Seminar Nov 10, 2022 “Sciences for Sustainable Development” - YouTube

